RE: Notice of Failure to Claim Exigent Circumstances

Dear _____:

Aeneas was contacted by Officer _____ with your agency on _____ and was asked to voluntarily provide call detail information on an account owned by our customer, _____. To protect our company and our customers when complying with such requests, we ask that the requesting officer make the following representation:

“On behalf of the above law enforcement agency, I declare that an emergency exists and that due to “exigent circumstances” as defined by federal and state law, we are requesting this information without getting a warrant or subpoena first. Generally speaking, in the criminal procedure context, exigent circumstances means: “An emergency situation requiring swift action to prevent imminent danger to life or serious damage to property, or to forestall the imminent escape of a suspect, or destruction of evidence.”

With respect to the request made above, no officer was willing to make this representation and therefore we could not comply with the request.

Aeneas remains committed to good citizenship and will continue to comply with valid requests for assistance from law enforcement.

Sincerely,

Aeneas Internet & Telephone Management
